

1. What details in Chapter 11 point once again to God being the driving force behind Israel's victory?
2. Why is the destruction of the horses and chariots especially important to the mission of the Israelites?
3. Discuss the process of the Lord hardening the hearts of the Canaanites. What purpose did it serve? How are the kings still responsible for their actions?
4. How does the inclusion of the expulsion of the Anakim from the hill country (vv.21-22) tie both earlier and later events in Israelite history together?
5. In v. 23, the land has rest from war. How is "rest" used in Scripture? How tenuous is this rest? What ultimate rest do we look to in the future?
